

CUSTOMER PROJECT EXPO

Conditions of Entry

Who can enter? The Customer Project Fair is open to all interested woodworkers, regardless of age or experience. Wood projects must have been created by the artist whose name appears on the entry registration.

Is there a fee? The registration fee is $20 before October 5 and $25 after October 5. Registration is closed October 25. All participants will receive a $25 gift certificate. Participants will also receive a one-time-use voucher for 25%-off all Lumber products at CU Woodshop Supply. Includes slabs, turning stock and all domestic/exotic lumber. The voucher must be redeemed prior to January 1, 2018.

Size restrictions: Entries that require more than 10 square feet of floor space may be limited. Space is allocated on a first come, first serve basis.

When do I deliver my projects? Projects must be delivered to the CU Woodshop (1401 Parkland Court, Champaign, IL 61821) by 9am November 2.

When do I pick up my projects? Projects must not be picked up earlier than 3pm on Saturday, November 4. Projects must be picked up no later than 3pm Monday, November 6. If you must send someone else to collect your project(s), that person must bring the claims check and a signed, written authorization from you. Call for special arrangements.

How can I sell my work? All work on display may be marketed for sale. All sales will be the responsibility of the exhibitor.

What is the judging procedure? Instead of Judging Panels, we invite the public to vote for the projects of their choice. All selected entries will be featured on our website.

What else do I need to know? Every effort is made to protect all exhibits with a secured, protected and alarmed exhibit space. The CU Woodshop will not be responsible for loss or damage of any kind. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to purchase insurance, if deemed necessary.

Contact Information: If you have a change of address, phone number or email address, you are required to update this information with the CU Woodshop in case we need to contact you regarding awards.
